Dear Parents

EXTENSION OF LOCKDOWN

Mr Ramaphosa has announced that the lockdown will be extended for a further two weeks. This means that schools will only possibly re-open on 4 May. Our teachers have prepared for this scenario and will start posting work for our children to do at home from 18 April. Work, with memorandums, will be posted every Sunday evening. All the teachers' email addresses will be made available to parents. You are welcome to email all questions regarding the week's work to the class/subject teacher. All emails will be answered between 8:00 and 15:00 every day.

Our Head of Academics, Mr Botha, will post a letter with the finer details later today.

This will not be an easy task, but we as teachers are committed to work hard and support you and our children during this difficult time. We have experienced your dedication as parents many times and trust that you will once again rise to the occasion. Together we can make this work.

Best of luck

VERLENGING VAN INPERKINGSTYD

Mnr. Ramaphosa het die inperkingstyd met twee weke verleng. Dit beteken dat alle skole eers moontlik op 4 Mei sal heropen. Ons is voorbereid hiervoor en is reg om tuiswerk vir ons leerders op D6 te plaas. Werk, met memorandum, sal vanaf 18 April weekliks op 'n Sondagaand geplaas word. Alle klasonderwysers se eposadresse sal ook op D6 beskikbaar wees. U is welkom om alle vrae aangaande die week se werk aan die klasonderwyser d.m.v 'n epos te stuur. Alle eposse sal daagliks tussen 8:00 en 15:00 beantwoord word.

Ons Akademiese Hoof, Mnr. Botha, sal later vandag 'n brief met meer spesifieke besonderhede plaas.

Ons beseft hierdie gaan nie n maklike taak wees nie, maar as onderwysers is ons gereed om hard te werk en ons ouers en kinders te ondersteun in hierdie moeilike tyd. Ons ken ons ouers se toewyding as dit by hul kinders kom en weet dat u ook nou, in hierdie situasie, sal uitstyg en oorwin. Saam kan ons ons kinders hierdeur dra.

Baie sterkte
